Tremont Temple Baptist Church 16,536
Boston, Mass.

"THE STRANGERS' SABBATH HOME"

The present building, the fourth to be erected upon this site, was dedicated in 1896 and contains one of the largest and most beautiful church auditoriums in New England, having a seating capacity of more than 2500.

Among its attractions is the great Casavant organ, so constructed with echoes and attachments that it is possible for a player to duplicate the tones of many other instruments.
